

The Perfect Spot

Do you dream about another life
Where you can get all the things you want
Have you ever heard about a place
Where you can see the back of beyond

Shining stars
Enlighten your mind and your body and soul
Rain or shine
It's a matter of love and your self-control

I know the perfect spot
If you believe it or not
Left of the middle on the highest height
I know the reason why
And it ain't a silly lie
The grass is always greener on the other side

If you wanna be just somebody else
You can forget all the things you've done
If you trust my very blue eyes
You can be the lucky one

Hey now go!
Up and down just let it show
High or low
Listen to the sound of the radio
Hey now go!
Up and down just let it show
Cheerio
Let me take you to place
Where I can love you so
