

You are the one

I will ever be fair
When the hard times are coming
I will remember the days
Full of love and pleasure

The hours of joy
The moments of luck
The sound of my beating heart
The soft summer nights
With the moon as our guide
These things are chained in my mind
When I say

You are the one
Who corrects my life when I lose control
You are the one
Who will follow me wherever I go

I would die
You'll fell in love with somebody else
It will never be the same
When you are leaving me one day
You are the one
You are the one

I cannot run away
Away from the problems
Cause I can't just run away from the memories
